53. b — Beneficence

54. a — Fidelity

55. b — Veracity

56. a — Do no harm

57. a — Fidelity

N1. b — Veracity
Veracity is the duty to tell the truth; children should be told honestly what to expect.

N2. b — Autonomy
Autonomy = the right of self-determination; children participate in decisions according to their developmental level.

N3. a, b, c, d — Autonomy; Beneficence; Non-maleficence; Justice

The four primary principles are autonomy, beneficence, non-maleficence and justice; veracity, fidelity and confidentiality are secondary.

N4. a — Non-maleficence

Non-maleficence = do no harm, including reducing pain and emotional trauma during procedures.

N5. b — Discussing a child's diagnosis with a nurse friend from another hospital

Sharing information with people not involved in care violates confidentiality; mandatory abuse reporting is a legal duty.

N6. b — Distributing care fairly according to the child's need

Justice means fairness — care allocated by need, not by social status or ability to pay.
